CAMERON WINS MARATHON.

Nova Scotia Long Distance Runne Makes Good Time.

Boston, April 19 .- Fred L. Cameron, the Nova Scotia long distance runner, won the annual B. A. A. Marathon race today, making the third best record for the twenty-five-mile course. Charles H. Demar, of Dorchester, was second. Cameron's time was 2:28:52 4-5. This is nearly twenty-five minutes better than the time made last year by Henri Renaud. and about four minutes behind the record feat at the hands of the Washington made by Longboat in 1907. Cameron finished in excellent condition.

Running a minute behind Cameron came Demar. His time was 2:29:52 4-5. J. J. 3 to 1, when Umpire Heald called the ish. When he reached the finish tape he was staggering, and when he realized that the ordeal was over Cockery dropped in collapse. His time was 2:24 2-5.

MORNING GAME.

2 to 1. Cicotte opened the game for Boston by passing two men in succession, and it was thought that Manager Donovan would have to take him out, but in the next inning he settled down. In the third inning the Nationals got to him for several hits. For Washington Oberlin pitched an excellent game, but was found more often than Cicotte for hits, and would have won the game if and Schaefer were both kept busy and played fine ball.

In the eighth Oberlin got in bad by
